

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Arbor Day is now observed throughout the world, nation, and state of Wyoming, and

Whereas, The City of Gillette recognizes the value of trees in reducing erosion, decreasing heating and cooling costs, moderating temperatures, cleaning the air, providing wildlife habitat, beautifying the community, increasing property values, and enhancing the economic vitality of business areas, and

Whereas, trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.

Now, Therefore, I, Louise Carter-King, Mayor of the City of Gillette, do hereby proclaim Friday, April 26th as in the City of Gillette, and call upon all citizens to support efforts to protect our trees and support our City's Urban Forestry program and Further, I urge all citizens to plant and care for trees to gladden the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

Arbor Day

Dated this 16th day of April, 2019.

Louise Carter-King, Mayor

Cindy Staskiewicz, City Clerk
